

FRIENDLY SMILES BY US

Meet Roni Faling, General Manager at Arby's in Clarkston. She has been with Happy Day Restaurants, which owns four Arby's locations in the Quad Cities, for 35 years. She has been in her current position for the last twelve years, and plans to retire in the coming months. She will be greatly missed by coworkers and customers alike, said Happy Day spokesman D.J. Maurer.

"I enjoy all of my wonderful customers," Roni said. "I love knowing how they are doing, hearing their stories, and seeing their smiling faces. ...I have a fantastic crew that never fails to make me look good. They have the same pride and passion that I do and it makes my job that much more enjoyable."

She also expressed gratitude for her boss, Happy Day Restaurants owner Bruce Finch, and "his wonderful staff -- whether it be at other stores or at the corporate office.

"The company really cares about their people and gives everyone great tools to excel in their positions."
