

ADULT LEARNING BY US

“The #1 college in the nation for non-traditional students”
- Best College Reviews

Turn your life experience into college credit with Lewis-Clark State’s Adult Learning portfolio option. The portfolio development course gives individuals the opportunity and instruction to successfully document and demonstrate college-level competencies they have acquired through work or outside of college and earn credits for it.

LC State’s revised portfolio class is for all majors and minors, including those in Career & Technical Education, offered at the college. An individual can earn up to 25 percent of an associate or bachelor’s degree, depending upon the major, which will put them well on their way toward degree completion.

The eight-week online portfolio development course is $50 and one college credit is available. The course lets students work at their own pace and meet with the instructor and faculty to aid them.

FINISH YOUR DEGREE BY US

Meet Doug Bauer, who recently returned to Lewis-Clark State College to resume his education after a 25-year hiatus. Doug took advantage of L-C State’s portfolio program last spring and has already earned 12 credits based on his professional experience. He is majoring in Business and Communications.

“The portfolio program allowed me to ease back into the college learning environment, which is very different than it was the last time I attended,” he said.

Doug began working at the Lewiston Tribune as a part-time sportswriter while still in high school. He eventually became managing editor of the Daily News in Moscow and then managing editor of the Tribune. After serving as Director of Marketing for TPC Holdings, the Tribune’s parent company, he now is its Chief Strategy Officer.

Doug and his wife, Jennifer, have three children, Maddix 18, Bridger 14, and Piper 12.

“I’ve wanted to finish my education for a long time, but life kind of got in the way,” Doug said. “The portfolio program has really been the catalyst for me to go back, and the way education is delivered these days really works well with my busy work and family schedule. I would highly recommend it to anyone who is looking to further their education.”
