Tysha Bringman, RN, Kerry Lopez, RN, and Lacy Sherrill, RN, of TriState Health's Inpatient Leadership Team, are the recent recipients of TriState Health's employee Be the SPARC Award. Tysha, Kerry, and Lacy were nominated by their fellow co-workers for their outstanding hard work and dedication. The "Be the SPARC" Award is a quarterly recognition that was established by employees to honor employees who are creating a positive environment for staff and patients. This award recognizes those who provide compassionate service and establish connections with their peers and patients, while being committed to the highest standard of work ethic.

"Tysha, Kerry, and Lacy have put countless hours, blood, sweat, and tears into making sure the new inpatient wing is safe for patients, families, and staff. There are so many things that go into construction behind the scenes and these ladies have done a wonderful job always putting safety as a top priority. I am grateful for these wonderful employees and nurses and to call them my co-workers and bosses." – SPARC Nominee

Announcing TriState Health's new clinic:

TriState Urogynecology

 TriState Health TSH.org/Urogynecology

TriState Health is proud to announce the opening of their newest clinic, TriState Urogynecology, coming in February 2024, along with their new provider, Julius Szigeti II, MD, a board-certified gynecologist specializing in urogynecology and minimally invasive pelvic procedures. The new clinic is staffed by the only urogynecologist in the region, who will provide comprehensive and personalized women's services.

Scope of services include diagnosis and treatment of a broad range of female pelvic health conditions, ranging from frequent bladder infections, overactive bladder, pelvic organ prolapse, urinary incontinence, and more! Join us in celebrating this milestone as they open the doors to a new era of urogynecological care at TriState Health.
