Meet Will Gillespie, regional supervisor for Inland Cellular.

Will manages inside sales and the sales floor at Inland Cellular's Moscow office. He has been with the company for seven years, and particularly enjoys meeting and interacting with people while helping fulfill their communications and technology needs.

Will and his wife, Maja, are the proud parents of daughter Piper. His hobbies include playing hockey and golf, and "enjoying a good ol' Harry Potter marathon with my family." His favorite part of living in the area is its warm and friendly atmosphere and great sense of community.

"What I like most about working for Inland Cellular is the community involvement. I have had some awesome opportunities to support and attend many events that support local causes."
