

CONNECTED BY US

Meet Ryan Holden, Business Solutions Representative for Inland Cellular in Moscow.

Ryan lived in Sacramento, Calif., until age 14, when he and his family moved to Deary. He initially experienced culture shock, but says it was ultimately the best thing that ever happened to him because of how much he enjoys living, working and raising his 11-year-old son, Dominic, in the Inland Northwest. An avid sports fan, he has been working for Inland Cellular for eight years.

"I'm able to go into businesses and communities to try building relationships, while also trying to help provide solutions for their personal or professional needs. And it's always rewarding when we're able to help a business save money while growing, or get them the services they've never had before. Or to see how much someone appreciates the fact that I'll drive all the way to them to help. I feel that customer service can go a long ways with people.

"This company gives back more than any other I've ever seen, and it's really rewarding when you see the appreciation people feel from it."
