

EVENTS BY US

Meet Alicia Finch, Sales and Event Coordinator for Happy Day Catering.

Alicia and husband Tobe are parents to three teen daughters, Sydney, Ryann, and Payton. She has been with Happy Day Catering since 2003 and is responsible for leading the sales and event production teams out of their Orchards shop. Alicia enjoys spending time with clients who are searching for delicious food and memorable events made easy, helping to turn their event dreams into reality.

HDC believes in personalized planning for each client's unique needs, offering efficient, professional service at events, and delivering consistent, high-quality food. Alicia's leadership over the years has solidified these as HDC's main customer priorities, and it shows in every order that goes out the door.

Alicia seeks to create long-lasting relationships within the community by offering the best services available in the event-planning world. From supporting the Boys and Girls Clubs to the Tri-State Hospital Foundation, local and regional Chambers of Commerce, and more, she looks forward to devising new ways Happy Day Catering can make positive impacts in the LC Valley and Palouse communities.
