Meet Jodi Jones, senior provider contracting executive for Regence BlueShield of Idaho in Lewiston.

Jodi has been part of what she calls her "Regence family" for 26 years. Her other family includes husband Ken, two sons and two new grandchildren. Her workdays involve engaging with hospital administrators, physicians and their office staff on contractual relationships with Regence. "It's exciting to join forces and effectively work alongside others who have a common passion to serve people. This is important as we have a shared customer: our member is their patient."

Outside of work, Jodi's interests include spending time with family and friends, traveling to beach destinations and helping others with their projects and "chores." She also enjoys Valley Girls at New Bridges Community Church and serves as a board member/secretary for the Gina Quesenberry Breast Cancer Foundation.

"Regence supports and encourages employee giving, volunteerism, and pulling together to help turn compassion into action to make our communities a better place."
