Meet Dave Greear, sales manager for Hahn Supply in Lewiston.

Dave and his wife, JoAnne -- who is the principal at Lewiston's Jenifer Junior High School -- have two daughters, Janna Greear and Kati Dawes, and a son-in-law, Levi Dawes. He has been with Hahn Supply for more than 15 years, and says interacting with and getting to know his customers is his favorite part of his job.

"We have customers that started their businesses about the same time that I started here and during the past 15 years. It's been impressive to watch them grow their business. We have customers that I have become good friends with over the years and have enjoyed getting to know them and their families."

"Basically for myself and everyone else at Hahn Supply, our main focus is taking care of our customers. We take pride in making sure that we have a good stock of items that our customers need. They are able to get the parts they need the same day and not have to wait two to three days for them. ... We have very knowledgeable employees with many years of experience that take a lot of pride in assisting our customers."
