Meet John Wilcox, operations manager for Hahn Rental's Lewiston, Moscow and Kamiah operations.

John and his wife, Jeannette, have five children and live in Kamiah, which provides ample opportunity for him to get out and enjoy the great outdoors. But during the workweek, he is devoted to fulfilling the various needs of his customers.

"We are looking at a customer base all the way from a homeowner to the industrial site. And there's also our events side, which takes care of a whole different facet of the rental business, whether it's a wedding or a party or a graduation."

John has been with the company since 1996, and enjoys coming to work each day and interacting with the customers Hahn Rental serves.

"It's a family-owned local business where you are a person and not a number. There is a personal attachment to each employee."
