Want more high school football, basketball and volleyball? Want more from the area's college-level athletic programs? Meet The Final Whistle's team of podcasters, Donn Walden and Trevan Pixley with breakdowns from some of the biggest matchups of the week. Featuring competitors, Donn says, "We try to connect with coaches and athletes to share their stories...we also try to have a bit of fun..."

Still not enough sports? Expanded offerings from the Sports department includes a videocast, Between the Lines, available on the Tribune's website just in time for breakfast on Saturday mornings. Each Week, Donn, Treven, and reporter Randy Isabelle breakdown all the games and give in-depth analysis for the most important contests in the region.

New podcasts are posted on lmtribune.com late Friday night, after the games.

You can't buy LOVE but you can buy LOCAL.
And that's sorta the same thing.

Meet Donn Walden, Sports editor for the Lewiston Tribune and Moscow-Pullman Daily News. Donn joined the sports department in 2019, moving to the Inland Northwest from Ohio with his wife, Jennifer, and their two children, Addison, 11, and Nolan, 9.

"A lot is expected of our sports team, and I think we have and will continue to do a good job meeting our readers' needs," says Donn, which includes balanced coverage of the region's 27 high schools and the region's three college-level athletics programs.

"The Tribune is the best and only source for the depth of high school and local college sports coverage we provide day in and day out...and [we] still find time to hit some of the in-betweens like cycling, jetboat races, running, auto racing, bowling and community golf events..."
