

THIS BUSINESS SUPPORTED BY LOCAL DOLLARS

Moscow Apparel Company is a local, veteran-owned business located in downtown Moscow at 122 E Third St. We opened in March 2020 in our garage and have now expanded to a downtown retail location. Our services include screen printing, digital prints, embroidery, sublimation, laser engraving, patches, promotional items, retail apparel, blanks, team/corporate online stores, and more. Moscow Apparel is the only local custom apparel business licensed with the University of Idaho and Washington State University, we carry Moscow Bear swag in-store and are licensed for Greek life apparel with the universities. Orders of any quantity, including small runs and one-offs, are accommodated with a fast turnaround. Our handcrafted items and excellent customer service create a stress-free experience. Choose any logo displayed in our store, pick a blank apparel item, and we press it for you right there. From family reunion tees to large corporate uniforms, Moscow Apparel Company has you covered!
